

In a press conference held yesterday, Barren County High School Principal Steve Riley announced that Brad Johnson has been selected as the Head Girls Basketball Coach and Assistant Principal at Barren County High School.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/071514riley.mp3{/audio}

Brad Johnson, a 1987 honors graduate of Barren County High School. In 1992, Brad received his Bachelors Degree in History and English from Western Kentucky University. In 1997 he earned his Master's Degree from WKU, and in 2011 he completed Administrative Certification from the University of the Cumberlands. Johnson said taking this position is truly a homecoming for him:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/071514johnson.mp3{/audio}

Congratulations to Johnson and to Barren County High School.