

FRIDAY WRECK NEAR GLASGOW POSTAL STORE INJURES TWO

Friday, 03 December 2010 23:40

At 12 noon Friday a wreck happened in Glasgow at the intersection of Trabue Street and West Water Street behind the Postal Store. A vehicle driven by 61 year old Deborah H. Deckard of Macbeth Lane collided with a vehicle driven by 60 year old Gail Alexander of East Main Street. Both drivers were transported by the Barren Metcalfe EMS to T.J. Samson Hospital for treatment of injuries. Sgt Jimmy Phelps investigated.
