

Beatrice Louise Jewell, 75, of Horse Cave, passed away Thursday, July 12, 2012 at her home.

She was born in Barren County, graduated from Hiseville High School, formerly worked at the Horse Cave Sewing Factory and at Handmacher in Glasgow. She also loved working in her flowers and U.K. Basketball.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Edward F. Morgan and Sylvia Woodcock Morgan; her husband of 49 years, Joe (Bully) Jewell; an infant son, Ricky Joe Jewell; 2 brothers, Edward Morgan and Wilburn (Shorty) Morgan; 1 sister, Linda Cook; a daughter-in-law, Kathie Jewell.

Survivors Include: Daughter: Pam Matthews and her husband, Charles, of Hardyville Son: Jimmie Lee Jewell, of Charlotte, NC, 3-Grandchildren: C.J. Matthews, of Hardyville; Ashley Jewell and Kevin Jewell, of Charlotte, NC, 1 Brother: Robert Morgan and his wife, Carolyn, of Beckton, 1 Sister: Sue Hardin, of Louisville; Several Nieces and Nephews

Funeral Services: Winn Funeral Home Chapel, Sunday, July 15, 2012 at 2 PM with burial in Cosby Cemetery. Visitation Winn Funeral Home Chapel, Saturday, July 14th from 3PM -8PM and after 10AM, Sunday, until service time.

Expressions of sympathy made be made in the form of donations to: Hospice T.J. Samson Community Hospital Home Care Program 1301 North Race Street Glasgow, Ky. 42143-3483