

Jesse James CraineThursday, 14 March 2013 14:00

Jesse James Craine, 66 of Park City passed away Wednesday, March 13, 2013 in Louisville. The Barren County native was a retired maintenance supervisor for the National Park Service, Vietnam Marine Veteran, a member of Bear Wallow Masonic Lodge and attended Fairview United Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife: Mary Lindsey Craine; two daughters: Nikkie Craine Warren of Austin and Jessica Craine of Cave City; two step-sons: Jason Thomas of Park City and Justin Malone of Franklin, Kentucky; three granddaughters: Shyann Thomas and Haley and Jessa Warren; one brother: George Craine of Horse Cave; five sisters: Frankie Gossett of Horse Cave, Beulah Brown of Park City, Marsha Glass of Munfordville, Shirley Reynolds of Park City and Barbara Sturgeon of Cave City and one sister-in-law: Mae Alderman of Elmira, New York.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Silas Richard and Velma Dennis Craine; his wife: Mary Lindsey Crain; one daughter: Christina Craine and three brothers: Jerry, J.R. and Michael Craine.

Funeral services for Jesse James Craine will be at 2PM Saturday, March 16, 2013 at the Patton Funeral Home, Park City Chapel with burial in the Evergreen Cemetery with military graveside services. Visitation will be from 11AM to 8PM Friday, March 15 and after 10AM Saturday at the funeral home.