

Edward N. "Sonny" Davidson, 67, of Glasgow, Kentucky died Friday, April 5, 2013 in Park City, Kentucky as a result of injuries received in a motorcycle accident. The Cook County native was a member of Ole Rocky Hill Baptist Church and Flying Dragons Motorcycle Club. He was a former employee of Nabisco, Martin Automotive and Harley Davidson Bowling Green. "Fisherman", as he was affectionately known, served as past president of Flying Dragons, loved farming, fishing, hunting, riding his motorcycle, jazz and socializing with his friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Edgar B and Pearleen Lewis-Davidson.

He leaves to cherish is memories; children, Marchelle Davidson of Rochester, New York and Edward LeShon Davidson of Indianapolis, Indiana; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; sister, Ruby Davidson of Anderson, Indiana; brothers, Leonard Davidson of Indianapolis, Indiana and Melvin Davidson of El Paso, Texas; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and relatives; and his companion, Jamie Watson of Glasgow, Kentucky.

The family will receive friends and guest for "Sonny's" special gathering on Thursday, April 12, 2013 , from 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM at Burnam & Son Mortuary in Bowling Green, Kentucky. Sonny's request for cremation will be honored following his gathering.