

Charles “Chuck” Ray Meserole age 59 of Munfordville entered into heaven on Monday, July 15 at the Jewish Hospital in Louisville, KY. He was born on Saturday, June 12, 1954 in Fairfield, IL, to Gilbert Ray & Charlene L. Gaston Meserole

Chuck grew up in Albion, IL where he attended schools and worked until he moved to Kentucky. In earlier years he shared his love in training and grooming race horses with his father and was also a professional wrestler. He loved his family and kept in close contact sending out daily messages on facebook and email. He loved to be outdoors especially to go fishing and hunting. He wanted most to be known and remembered for his special hobby and his love for Indian Artifacts, which later grew into his world of work to create and produce beautiful pieces of art into arrowheads. Chuck was very gifted and talented and it reflected in his everyday life in the time he spent knapping out pieces of rock to produce a masterpiece of art. Chuck was a member of the Crossland Community Church in Glasgow, KY

Chuck is survived by his wife Bonita West Meredith

2 daughters Amanda Marie Meserole of Albion, IL
