

Bettie Carol Huntsman Biggers, 80, passed away at her home in Nashville, TN on Saturday August 17, 2013, following a lengthy illness.

A Scottsville, KY native, born on Christmas Day in 1932, Bettie Carol and husband Paul E. Biggers, Jr. owned and operated Interiors by Biggers in Glasgow, KY for several years until his death in 1978. She later located to Phoenix, AZ and continued her career as a valued employee of Dillards Department Stores. Upon her retirement in 2010, she moved to Nashville, TN to be near that which gave her the most joy... her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Bettie was preceded in death by her father Harry B. Huntsman, her mother Lillie M. Huntsman, and a sister Marilyn. She is survived by her brother Dr. Harry B. Huntsman, II, Greensburg, Ky, her sister Deanna H. Lane, Indianapolis, IN, and her brother Eric M. Huntsman of Ft. Myers Beach, Fl.

She is also survived by her sons Paul E. Biggers, III and wife Kaye, Nashville, TN; Stephen E. Biggers, also of Nashville, and Brent H. Biggers, Scottsville, KY. Bettie so adored her seven grandchildren, Monet Biggers Suchovsky and her husband Craig; Paul E. Biggers, IV, John Stephen Biggers, and Jacob Hugh Bartlett Biggers, all of Nashville, TN., Christopher Bryant Biggers and wife Jacqueline, Washington, DC; Jackson Murphy and Lauryn Turner Biggers of Scottsville, KY; and her loving great-grandchildren that brought her so much joy, Kate McKenna and Caroline Eve Suchovsky, Nashville; Addeline Grace, Micah Huntsman, and Ainsley Julianne Biggers, Washington, DC, and Rondal Earl Trigg, Greenville, SC, a son from another mother, Geneva Trigg. A void is also left in the hearts of many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends

A private, family ceremony will be observed with internment in the Glasgow Municipal Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested expressions of sympathy be made in the form of donations to Bettie Carol's favorite charities, the American Heart Association or Ronald McDonald House, or to the charitable organization of your choice in her honor.
