

AUGUST 2 – AUGUST 6

MONDAY: The problem with finding a parking space at the T. J. Samson Community Hospital will soon be history, according to Mr. William Kimbell, Administrator.

An additional parking lot has already been completed at the rear of the hospital and more than a thousand truck loads of dirt (with more to be added) from the Weldon Subdivision, have been dumped on the lawn in front of the hospital to add still another lot that will accommodate approximately 75 cars. This will be blacktopped after the newly moved dirt has settled.

TUESDAY: Carroll Morris Redford, Jr., 26 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll M. Redford, has returned to Glasgow to become associated with his father in the general practice of law. He is a member of the Barren County, Kentucky State, and American Bar Associations.

Young Redford was educated in the Glasgow elementary schools and attended Glasgow High School. He was graduated from Kentucky Military Institute in 1952 with a scientific degree. Redford attended Vanderbilt University for his college training where he majored in psychology and minored in chemistry and biology and graduated in 1956. He received his law degree in 1959.

WEDNESDAY: Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Luther Jewell Dennison son of William Dennison, please notify the Local Draft Board at OL1-5105. It is very important that all registrants must keep their local draft board advised of any change in their status.

THURSDAY: J. J. Newberry Company Assistant Manager George R. Davis, floor lady, Mary Ed Chamberlain, and sales lady, Carrie Grace will be in Birmingham, Ala. Two weeks to assist in the opening of a J. J. Newberry Co. store in Eastwood Shopping Center. This will be one of Newberry's largest stores in the south.

MONDAY: Glasgow' youngest feminine golfer, Brenda High, left over the weekend to enter the Junior USGA Golf Tournament to be held Monday in Tulsa, Okla.

TUESDAY: Fire of undetermined origin Monday night completely destroyed a barn on the farm of Neal Bishop near the South Fork Road. Some 700 bales of newly harvested hay and the milking parlor were included in the loss. The Glasgow Fire Department was called to the scene and prevented the blaze from destroying nearby buildings.

WEDNESDAY: To relieve crowded conditions at the T. J. Samson Community Hospital plans are being formulated to add a new 60 room addition to the present facilities.

THURSDAY: JET AGE SQUIRRELS: A pleasure trip squirrel hunting almost turned into a nightmare it seemed to O. D. Bowles. Mr. Bowles was squirrel hunting in the woods on his farm east of Eighty Eight Tuesday when he heard a terrific explosion. He was to learn later that he was only one of many area residents frightened by the mysterious noise, still unexplained but theorized as a jet breaking the sound barrier. Mr. Bowles immediately returned home and at wasn't until later in the day he remembered the squirrels and returned to the farm to bag the limit.

FRIDAY: BUSY WEEK FOR THE STORK: Old man Stork has had a busy time of it this week with twenty-eight babies born at the Samson Hospital since our publication last Wednesday. And to prove what an efficient bird he is, he made twin runs to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Walker, Edmonton, Route 2, with twin boys, Jerry Harbet and Barry Russell, and to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Bull of Park City, A girl, Francine Rena, and a boy, Frederick Lee. The Bull babies mead a double pride to Mr. Fred Pardue, who became Grandpa for the first and second time in one swell swoop.
